Education Committee

11. Approval / PVHS "Say Something Day" Proclamation

Whereas, when it comes to violence, suicide and threats, most are known by at least one other individual before the incident occurs; and

Whereas, 80% of school shooters told someone of their violent plans prior to the event. 7 out of 10 people who complete suicide told someone of their plans or gave some type of warning or indication; and

Whereas, Say Something teaches students in Middle and High School how to look for warning signs, signals and threats, especially in social media, from individuals who may want to hurt themselves or others and to "say something" to a trusted adult to get them help.

Whereas, Say Something will benefit young people, educators, administrators, community-based organizations, parents, and caretakers by building a culture of looking out for one another; and

Whereas, by reporting possible threats of violence when someone sees, reads, or hears something, entire communities will become safer, and lives will be saved; and Whereas, Sandy Hook Promise, a national, non-profit organization led by family members whose loved ones were killed in the tragic mass shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary School on December 14, 2012 supports sensible solutions that protect children and prevent gun violence by bringing individuals and communities together, to look out for and care for one another; and

Whereas, Sandy Hook Promise's Say Something Program, is being celebrated as part of National Say Something Week, March 14 - March 18, 2022 at Passaic Valley Regional High School; and

Whereas, through Say Something, young people will see a positive change for everyone and save lives by looking out for one another.

Therefore, we, the elected officials of the Passaic Valley Regional High School Board of Education in Little Falls, New Jersey, do recognize and commemorate the importance of this program and hereby proclaim March 17, 2022, to be Say Something Day at Passaic Valley Regional High School in Little Falls, New Jersey and encourage all our citizens to recognize Say Something's significance.
